

Foto-Report about the E1 Seminar in Nicosia, Cyprus

Of the Erasmus+ Projekts: MathGAMES

On 29th of March 2018

Multiplier Event E1: MathGAMES Seminar

A seminar about the project-theme "Mathematics learning by games" was held in Cyprus with participants from all countries. The result of this seminar is an additional help for the development of the "MathGAMES teacher training course".

The Event E1 was held successfully with more than 120 people.

Agenda:

Math-GAMES
Games and Mathematics in Education
Venue: A-Room, Hilton Cyprus Hotel, Nicosia

10:00 – 13:00 International Seminar E1

Participants

- All members of the Math-GAMES Project from Bulgaria, Cyprus, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Romania, Spain
- All trainees of the pilot of the "Math-GAMES Teacher Training Course"
- Interested and invited teacher from adult education (as well primary and secondary education) from Cyprus and from abroad (Greece, Israel, FYROM, ...)

Aims of the E1 Seminar

- Introduction to the Math-Games Project and Methodology
- Present one of the Math-GAMES lessons to the public
- Evaluate the pilot

Agenda

09:45 Arrivals, Registration

10:00 Welcome

10:15 Introduction to the Math-Games Project and Methodology

11:00 Presentation of one or two lessons by the participants of the "Math-GAMES Teacher Training Course" in a class-room simulation

11:45 Results of the Evaluation of the Pilot and Discussion

12:15 Presentation of the Intellectual Output

12:45 Handing over the Math-GAMES-Books (Compendium and Handbook, language of the books: EN, GR) for free

Photos:

